

End-of-Life Community Conference

GRIEVING THE DEAD IN THE TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY

ALL SOULS DAY — FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2018
7:30 AM - 3:30 PM
THE WESTIN LA PALOMA

WORKSHOPS INCLUDE:

- How the Living Remember the Dead –
A panel discussion facilitated by Jeannette Maré, Ben's Bells
- Dealing with Grief in the Practice of Caregiving –
Featuring perspectives from a variety of caregiving roles including family members, first responders and hospital staff
- ¡Vivan Los Muertos! Long Live the Dead –
Suzanne Morrison PhD, Interfaith Community Services
- How the US-Mexico Border Shapes Grief, Loss & Healing –
Ben Clark, Colibri Center for Human Rights and Rebecca Crocker PhD, Southwest Center/University of Arizona
- Self-Care for the Grieving Body, Mind and Spirit –
Stephanie Ludwig M.Div, MA, PhD, Canyon Ranch
- The Death Café: Tea, Cake and Conversations on Death –
Isabel S. Amorous MA, CGC, CC, The Death Café

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

DR. CANDI CANN

Associate Professor at Baylor University and author of Virtual Afterlives and Dying to Eat: Cultural Perspectives on Food, Death and the Afterlife

PLATINUM SPONSOR:
CONNIE HILLMAN
FAMILY FOUNDATION

REGISTRATION COMING SOON!
info@casafoundation.org or 520-351-5441 for more information